DEFENDANT'S STATEMENT TO THE COURT AT THE STATUS HEARING ON JULY 14, 2021

Your Excellency, Honorable Judge Edward Korman:

I wish to take this opportunity to reiterate that contrary to the US Government's assertions, I never engaged in any conspiracy to violate the US laws and until my arrest by the FBI in January, 2021, I never thought that my consulting role with the Mission of Iran to United Nations was unlawful. To reiterate, various Iranian ambassadors to UN, beginning with ambassador Javad Zarif in 2007, repeatedly assured me that under UN rules Iran was entitled to two outside consultants and that it was perfectly legal. I was repeatedly asked by Iran's Mission to UN to send copies of my passport, green card, and cori report, to submit to UN, which I did, most recently in late 2020, a few months prior to my arrest. I received checks from a UN Credit Union account and deposited in my account at Chase Manhattan Bank, until the bank closed my account because of the Iran connection. I used my rapport with the Iranians to help the cause of nuclear non-proliferation and that of various US prisoners in Iran, including the three American hikers, the FBI agent missing in Iran, and professor Halleh Esfandiari, with a measure of success, as well as to steer the Iranian government in the direction of moderation, tolerance, and rapprochement with the West. As a nuclear expert, I fully supported the Iran nuclear agreement, which resulted in Iran's dispensing with over 95 percent of its enriched uranium and was a stepping stone in US-Iran normalization, and I wrote books and articles advocating the cause of US-Iran dialogue and reconciliation. In addition, I took part in several rounds of US-Iran Track II diplomacy, including at US association of UN in New York, and interacted with various US former ambassadors with the full knowledge of US Government. I repeatedly appeared in the US Government network, Voice of America, consistently favoring dialogue and reconciliation between US and Iran. I have already provided ample evidence of my (highly-praised) scholarship in political science and comparative theology to the court, and I am aghast by the serious damage to my scholarly record as a result of the present charges. My conscience is clear: I have a long record as a peace activist, focusing on de-escalation of tensions between two hostile nations, while defending women's rights in Iran, criticizing extremism, founding an inter-faith outfit, Global Interfaith Peace, and upholding international norms, e.g., by founding "UN & the world" on social media and contributing to UN publications, as can be readily ascertained by my video presentation on UN and sustainable development (link below):

Also, I wish to reiterate that I am an educator and have done post-doctoral research at Harvard University, UC Berkeley, and State University of New York at Binghamton (Center for the Study of World Civilizations and Center for Democratic Performance). I have devoted a lion share of my adult life as an educator, teaching at Framing State College, University of Massachusetts at Lowell, Boston University, Northeastern University, Tufts University, Babson College, and Bentley University. I have rave letters of recommendation from my superiors at these colleges, which I would be happy to submit to the court. Also, I have worked closely with Mr. Chris Wallace of Fox News on two occasions with respect to Iran, just as I did with the elder Mike Wallace as a consultant to CBS' "60 Minutes." I have already proffered a letter of late Mr. Mike Wallace praising my scholarly output.

Sadly, irrespective of my academic credential, I am also a victim of gross human rights abuses in US and my civil and constitutional rights have been repeatedly violated with impunity. I am a former pro se plaintiff in the civil rights action, Afrasiabi versus Harvard, at the federal court in Boston that went to a 10-day jury trial and then was ultimately disposed of by the full bench of US Supreme Court in 2002, and it is indeed ironic that the recent FBI arrest coincided with the 25th anniversary of my wrongful arrest and incarceration by Harvard police on trumped up charges, which were dismissed and led to my civil action aforementioned. I have endured repeated episodes of police brutality in retaliation against me since then, case in point in 2010 I was falsely accused of not having paid a 1986 ticket by Cambridge police, that nearly killed me in the back of their patty wagon similar to the case of Mr. Freddie Gray in Baltimore. I have submitted a complaint to the Civil Rights Division of US Justice Department, requesting an investigation of the repeated abuses of my human rights in Massachusetts, awaiting a response. Several years ago, I reached out to the then Senator John Kerry as a Massachusetts resident, requesting a US Justice Department investigation, which was declined by the Justice Department per a letter sent to me by Mr. Kerry back then. I have also filed a number of complaints to UN Human Rights Council and various rights organizations regarding my mistreatment in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which have resulted in head injuries to me, still affecting me.

In conclusion, in my humble opinion, it is unfair to subject a 64 year-old Iranian-American academic who has devoted himself to the noble causes abovementioned and who has suffered grievously in the past to the trials and tribulations of the present charges that stem from a basic misjudgment of the nature of my work as a responsible social scientist committed to the cause of peace, dialogue, and harmony between nations.

Respectfully Submitted,

Kaveh L. Afrasiabi. Pro Se
